About Gone To Lunch

Gone To Lunch are former pop drummer Michael Natkanski and erstwhile classical singer Lisa Westerhout. Their contrasting musical backgrounds inspired them to write together. They are independents who produce various species of pop.

Their first outing Radio Pop Vol. 1 is a compilation album of eight mainstream radio friendly singles offering Twinset & samba, Doom funk, Girl pop, Detroit gospel, epic and orchestral ballads and 50s pop.

Radio Pop Vol. 1 features guest performances from five new UK artists, all with their own rising careers : Akua Tu, Danusia Samal, Elizabeth Jai, Hazel Tratt, Mia Tizzano.

Radio Pop Vol. 1 is available as both album and single downloads on their site and on iTunes, Amazon, CD baby and other online retailers and streaming services.

Biographies, interview and pictures are available as downloads from 'Press kit' on the main menu of their site.
